

TAX PAYMENT HELD — A lot of money changed hands during the last week in December as taxpayers of the county, town and village rushed to pay 1967 taxes before a tax protest known effective with the first day of the new year. There are five tax collectors at two different offices "paying up" for the year.

At the left, Connor Wilson of Alex. managed to stand up a credit study on his property in town in Mrs. Bue Young of the county of Lacombe office.

At the right, Mrs. Bue Young checks over Lacombe company treasurer Frank W. Lacey as he writes up a detailed receipt for taxes paid.

Flash picture on tax collection are not yet available from other offices, but from the last transfer sheet of tax payments, totals are considered "normal". — Staff photo

1967 Building Totals $875,101

Building permits for the year 1967 totaled $875,101, a year reported last week by town assistant secretary- treasurer Bruce Bue.

This figure is less $7,000 off the 1966 record high of $882,551. A study of the figures, though, shows a large increase in 1967 in "habitable" buildings, down compared to last year's figures.

These building figures of the past two years show less increase from the previous three years. In 1966, the building in Lacombe was $840,176. In 1965, $808,200, in 1964, $808,200.

It is interesting to note that the new composite high school is not included in Lacombe's building permit total, since it is located on county land outside town limits.

A breakdown of the 1967 totals, broken up by categories for the year:

Brakes OK?

If you can push the brake pedal down while two inches of the floor—or if you have a "pong" your brakes to stop—better drive over and let us check them for you right away. In a few minutes we can tell whether it's just a matter of greasing air-habes out of the hydraulic lines, or replacing the brake shoes—but in those few minutes we may be able to save you several hundred dollars on the road!

210,000 New Canadians in '67

Canada's population continues to become more and more polyglot each year through immigration.

In Canada's centennial year, this country welcomed 210,000 immigrants, the highest immigration year since 1887. Under new regulations, landed immigrant status was given to 15,000 people already in the country.

Dipping into the past . . .

Of particular interest to the Lacombe area is the fact that the "New Canadians" came from all over the world. In the past, the largest group of immigrants to the Lacombe area was from the United Kingdom. This was followed by the United States, Canada, and other countries.

Not A Canadian Sport

SEVERAL years ago a Canadian community made a half-hearted attempt to put on a bullfight. It didn't catch on with the people, who apparently decided it was an unfair form of combat.

It is interesting to note that the Lacombe area has never had a bullfight. This is probably due to the fact that the area is not a traditional bullfighting area.

Annual meeting of the Levenshoe curling club will be held at the curling rink on Thursday evening, commencing at eight o'clock.

Club president Al Christensen says that this is a most important meeting, since some improvements in curling facilities are being considered.

"It will end somewhere in the neighborhood of $20,000 build a new rink," Mr. Christensen told The Globe, "but this is certainly what we must do sometime in the immediate future."

"The present old building is pretty bad," said he, "but we can even keep it right on the rate he pointed out."

A good turnout of curlers at the rink is expected. The club's executive committee is expected to be in attendance.

A Personal Victory

ROBERT H. Thompson's victory in the Progressive-Conservative convention in Red Deer last week was a tremendous personal triumph.

An easy target for bitter attacks with his excellent approval rating in the province, Thompson was able to weather the storm. The surprise of ground roots support was heard from his past in the conservative ranks.

500,000 Jobs Required

CANADA has an odd-looking job situation on the ground level. The unemployment rate is 10.5 per cent, but the Financial Post emphasizes that much more than 500,000 jobs are needed to keep the economy moving ahead, while keeping a light touch on the money supply.

Labeled available figures show that in March, 80,000 fewer Canadians were at work in manufacturing than in the previous year—a drop of 4.1 per cent. Construction employment in March 1968 was down 3.5 per cent from the same month in 1967.

Most of all, Canada, since the passage of the British North America Act, has not been a unitary country. It has been a federation of provinces and a federal government. It has been a federation of provinces and a federal government. It has been a federation of provinces and a federal government.

As to the question of black-mailing English Canada or the supposed attempt to force Quebec into acceptance of the present constitution, nothing could be further from the truth. There are great roads phasing sound fine ideas in the last few years that it has sought to reverse them.

Reform of the existing constitution, one way or another, is now being demanded. The form of reform remains a matter of argument, and the vagueness of Mr. Johnson's rhetoric does not help much. His policy, trying to keep the status quo, is obvious. It won't be long before he will have to get down to cases. High time.

Mr. Johnson makes great declarations about Mr. Lapointe be-

The nomination practically ensures his election. Any person who can claim the support and loyalty which he did at a political convention has no need to worry about the result. The support of the public, particularly in an area where Social Credit has ruled for long, and we have a renewed measure of confidence in the man who is elected with the Conservatives.

Canada's Need of a Man for Today

With slightly more than half the population under the age of 35, Canada is becoming a younger country day by day. Our youth are the future of our country. They are the ones who will carry on the torch of our nation. They are the ones who will build the future of our country. They are the ones who will make the difference between a stagnant and a progressive nation.

The youth of Canada have a lot to offer. They are the ones who will bring about the changes that are needed in our society. They are the ones who will make the difference between a stagnant and a progressive nation. They are the ones who will make the difference between a stagnant and a progressive nation.

"Our problem," said Gordon Paverst, a P.C. M.P., is that we are not doing enough for our youth. We are not doing enough for our youth. We are not doing enough for our youth. We are not doing enough for our youth. We are not doing enough for our youth.

The Changing Scene

THE CFB station at Lacombe came to public service on Friday, June 7. The station will still be used as a public waiting room by being and lighted at night and will remain as a telephone center for the railway company, but the building will be an empty shell as far as service is concerned.

All services in future will be provided through a toll-free 800 telephone number to the new "customer service center" in Regina.

The switchover is a most personal matter to many CFB employees here. Moves have had to be made, switches have been required to new jobs... but Lacombe is more fortunate than most centers in that four telephone positions will remain in Lacombe. At most points — Ponoka, Havelock, Estevan and here — there will be no jobs left at all of the station points.

The new system has been in vogue in the Lethbridge division for two years, and CFB employees claim complete customer satisfaction.

These changes in time, though, who just look with nostalgia on the early days when the station was the central depot for the commercial life of the town.

But the years take their toll... and in the future, railroad stations will become as much a relic of the past as the lonely whistle of the old steam engine.

Dipping into the past . . .

A Deserved Tribute

WALTER McHenry might be a well known name to the Lacombe area. He was a member of the Lacombe branch of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Identifying the night was typical of the man — short speech, to the point, a well organized banquet that remained friendly, and a varied program, showing the variety of country 4-H members. The greatest tribute paid to Mr. McHenry was the turnout of about 450-475 members past and present, their parents and other interested persons.

The Globe joins this club in thanking Walter McHenry on a job well done.

Congratulations

CONGRATULATIONS are in order to Premier R. C. Manning on the 25 years of public service he has given Alberta as head of the provincial government. It is a unique achievement to serve for 25 years in premier, and makes any eulogy of words superfluous since his years in office are an indication of the premier's worth.

We have not always agreed with governmental policies but there can be no doubt that year in year out, Mr. Manning and his government have provided the administration for the citizens of this province.

Brewmaster Steinecker never quits.
How do you improve on a great beer? You make it even better. That's why we called in Brewmaster Steinecker. And why Molson's Edmontonian Brewery now has the first complete Steinecker Brewery in North America. This brewmaster is the brainchild of a brilliant Bavarian who developed a better way to brew beer to consistently great flavor. Naturally, the idea appealed to Molson's. When you've got a great thing brewing, there's only one thing to do. Improve it. Brewmaster Steinecker never quits.

The Need for Blood

THE RED CROSS is an busy organization that does not get very much credit for the tremendous volume of work they do for every part of blood that goes through the bank.

Perhaps they're modest. The service provided by the Red Cross includes mixing donors, running the clinic with all of the necessary equipment, and groups, trying the blood, storing and distributing it, and by the way, in emergencies and extraneous places and other communities. Blood has been known to save.

All this service is provided free, along with the blood to be transfused.

Let's break the veil of secrecy

THE RED CROSS applauds J. B. McFetridge of the Alberta Teachers' Association for his statement that members of the ATA should "drop the business in collective bargaining and let the press."

Mr. McFetridge who is information officer for the ATA, has pointed out that the ATA negotiating committee should not be the press and give a briefing on developments that they present to local school boards. He explained to the 20th annual ATA conference at the Hotel Astoria in 1968 that this paper has for years urged, however and begged both ATA and county school negotiating committees to let the taxpayers know what is going on at salary negotiating meetings.

With the general public—the taxpayer—left in the dark, no one knows whether the teachers are being paid too much, or whether their demands are moderate. No one knows whether the school commission is being paid too much, or whether they are being paid too little, or whether they are being paid too much, or whether they are being paid too little, or whether they are being paid too much, or whether they are being paid too little.

Dipping into the past . . .

One Year Ago

Over 3,000 women flocked to the Red Cross to give blood. The Red Cross is a busy organization that does not get very much credit for the tremendous volume of work they do for every part of blood that goes through the bank.

Two Years Ago

Local business was severely shaken by the recent oil shortage. The Alberta Teachers' Association (ATA) is a busy organization that does not get very much credit for the tremendous volume of work they do for every part of blood that goes through the bank.

Lake water levels . . . another view

Summer and permanent residents around Gull Lake and surrounding towns are showing concern about the dramatic rising level of their lake.

In contrast, people hereabouts are not showing concern about the dramatic rising level of their lake.

The Gull Lake people have been demanding more action. A public meeting of 600 district residents was held by R. R. Bailey, head of provincial water resources branch, and Dr. A. W. Lacey, U.C. of professor, that the water level could be maintained at a 100-foot level.

The water level could be maintained at a 100-foot level.

Three Years Ago

Local business was severely shaken by the recent oil shortage. The Alberta Teachers' Association (ATA) is a busy organization that does not get very much credit for the tremendous volume of work they do for every part of blood that goes through the bank.

Four Years Ago

Little league baseball

THE Little league baseball tournament to wind up the season proved to be enjoyable and amusing.

All the young ball players enjoyed themselves and had many more in display at the tournament were thoughtful players and were pleased equally and few young players had to "have the room" during the supper and short speeches that followed. It was enough to make one a fan in the Little League.

The turnout of parents was also gratifying as approximately 500 people attended the banquet, leaving few empty seats.

The after supper comments

Let them have their say

WITH a prime minister who has accepted and encouraged the views of the people, it is not surprising that the young people of the country have been given the opportunity to have their say in the federal voting age from 18 to 21.

The opportunity to exercise this important right is being set up when the long-promised referendum on the voting age is held.

Stealing is still a crime

A YOUNG woman was recently sentenced to three days in jail for stealing goods from a store. The magistrate had come to the conclusion that the young woman was a habitual thief. She had been arrested on several occasions for stealing goods from a store. She had been sentenced to three days in jail for stealing goods from a store.

There has been a tendency for the courts to continue sentencing from merchants, apparently on the ground that if the merchant is not left with his property he is not left with his property. This is a most serious consequence.

The famous Atlas Snow tires . . . guaranteed full

An untuned car is "won't start" trouble.

You're all wet and you're blaming your battery. Yet—the real cause of your "won't start" trouble is just as likely to be worn spark plugs in an untuned engine.

Wet cold weather cuts your car battery's output so there's less voltage available for starting. And worn spark plugs can easily require twice the voltage of new plugs. Result—you have a combination that can be too much for even a brand new battery.

In fact, an 80,000-car study covering all the United States and Canada showed the odds are three times greater that you'll have starting trouble if your spark plugs are untuned.

To avoid starting trouble this fall and winter, get a Champion Tune-Up: a new set of Champion spark plugs plus any other basic tune-up items your car may need. Champion spark plugs meet or exceed warranty requirements of all vehicle and engine manufacturers.

GREEN BEANS — An extremely useful implement to have around the farm this fall is a green dryer, like the one pictured above which belongs to the Decker Brothers of the Beatty area.

Grains in bundles from the field to a truck and mounted up into the bin behind the dryer. It falls from there into a trough, and then is carried by the belt of the dryer. From there it falls evenly around the outside portion of the dryer. When the dryer is full the material is closed up and it is forced through it, being the grain, crushed in the front, just behind the structure. This air is forced with pressure, and it is only enough to blow the grain, little by little, through the structure. to the top. Temperature of the air is carefully controlled, and value is the type of grain being dried.

Length of time of drying also depends on the moisture content of the grain. After it is dried, the grain is cooled, and then is ready to be stored.

Above, Don Decker is shown in the process of everything to do with the dryer, which provides the power for the bin.

Give yourself a treat ... see the new American Motors' REBEL

at Williams Service Garage

The thing about the Rebel is ... People like it ... and for good reasons. Its good looks; its good size — a roomy six-seater.

Can a machine like people? Yes, if it's a Rebel. Little things like the accelerator pedal to make it more responsive and more comfortable to use than an ordinary pedal hinged to the floor.

Then there's the smooth ride with the new wider track and a new rear suspension ... and if it's power you want, you can option one of three V-8's, up to 343 cubic inches. See this fine car, on display now at BEAUTY IN RURAL RESIDENCES — Rural residents of the Lacombe area have decorated their houses for the Christmas season. A good example is the home of Mr and Mrs. Harold Judgen, pictured above.

Located at Prestise, the Judgen home features wisteria, Santa Claus, his sleigh and reindeer and other Christmas scenes. Prestise is four miles east and six miles south of Lacombe.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas ... 1968

Christmas is a time of joy and peace. It is a time when we pause to reflect on the past year and look forward to the future. It is a time when we share with those who are less fortunate. It is a time when we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

Keep our highways safe

As the holiday season gets underway, motorists on the highways are urged to drive safely. The holidays are a time of joy and peace, but they are also a time of increased traffic. Motorists are urged to drive safely and to avoid distractions. It is the responsibility of every driver to keep our highways safe.

The challenge of the turkey

Hands of most families in Lacombe and district face their big test tomorrow afternoon when the Christmas turkey is placed in front of them for dinner. The turkey is a symbol of the holiday season. It is a time when we share with those who are less fortunate. It is a time when we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

"Petty thievery" big business

A REPORT in The Provincial Press indicates that petty thievery by customers and sales clerks in retail stores is a big business. It is a time when we share with those who are less fortunate. It is a time when we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

Full steam ahead!

COUNCILORS from many communities are now engaged in the current race-around campaign that will be held by this fall to elect members of the annual town raters' meeting last week.

Council and the building committee should be concentrating their efforts in planning the new facility. They should bring together and make a better plan for the future.

High cost of government buildings

The University of Alberta is aware of the high cost of building a new home for the law faculty in place of an estimated cost of about three million dollars.

Along with the interior structure of space on the campus and a new hall for the new building the first in the north campus expansion the price tag is too high. The proposed building will cost about $41.00 per square foot. This figure is not of the even for the big city where construction costs run higher than in this city.

The budget

THE PROVINCIAL budget, brought down by the Minister of Finance last Friday, was the most effective statement of the government's financial position in the history of the province.

Provincial treasurer Andrew Brown, in introducing the budget, said that the 1970-71 budget is "more than three times as large as the total budget of 10 years ago."

This year, education took one-third of the revenue of the province. This means that in 1970, Alberta will spend on education about as much as the provincial government of 1960 spent on all departments. And this is the supplementary revenue made available by the province.

GREEN ACRES

Art Weibe, president of the Green Acres Association, said that the association is planning to build a new home for the law faculty in place of an estimated cost of about three million dollars.

The proposed new supermarket

TFR would be faced with a serious problem on which many business leaders have been unable to reach a building in town.

I can try to prevail on the prospective builder to construct the building in a corner "T" area. The prospective builder, however, has already agreed to build a supermarket in the corner "T" area.

I can also see the present regulations to permit the building where it is planned.

In the Legislature this week .. propose driver demerit system

A new bill introduced in the Legislature this week, proposes a driver demerit system. The bill, introduced by Mr. [Name], aims to improve road safety by penalizing drivers who commit traffic offenses. The system would allow police to deduct points from a driver's license for various offenses, such as speeding, running red lights, and driving without proper insurance. If a driver accumulates too many points, their license could be suspended for a period of time.

Larger seed means larger yields

When it comes to seed, bigger is often better. Larger seeds generally contain more nutrients and energy, which can lead to higher yields for farmers. However, it's important to choose seeds that are also well-suited to the local climate and soil conditions. Farmers should look for seeds that have been bred specifically for their region to get the best results.

New varieties introduced

The development of new varieties of crops is an ongoing process. Farmers are always looking for ways to improve their yields and the quality of their produce. This often involves breeding new varieties of plants that are better suited to the local environment. For example, some farmers are developing crops that are more resistant to pests and diseases, while others are working on crops that have a longer growing season. These new varieties can help farmers to produce more food more efficiently.

Budget time

DURING the next month or so, the two parties of the province will be making their annual budget speeches to determine what the government will do for the next year.

Parity wages

AIR Canada planes were provided this week as 2000 passengers and maintenance workers walked off their jobs after a dispute over wages.

The dispute is over wages and is a result of a 50% increase in a one-year contract.

The Canadian dollar is internationally valued at around 80¢ below the American dollar.

Engineers meet with contractors

Engineers and architects have already met to discuss with electrical and mechanical contractors and some plans have been discussed in an effort to cut costs on the contract price.

They are also meeting today with Alra Kilo of Kilo construction Ltd. in order to work out future steps which can be made in order to cut costs on the specifications in the present building plan.

A contract is expected to have been signed in the near future with the engineers, and make a decision on the future of the arena-venue complex.

To: Residents of Lacombe and District

It has come to our attention that certain individuals, names are being furnished to the Lacombe area in the effort to encourage funeral homes are offering funeral services at lower prices.

We would like the people of the Lacombe area and district to know that our funeral prices are lower than any other funeral home in the province offering the same quality and service.

To clarify this matter we would like to point out that funeral fees are obtained from our friends at Funeral Chapel for as low as $175.00 and up, depending entirely on the type of service and services selected and desired by our family.

We would like to point out that no family need feel compelled to purchase funeral services and that we challenge any funeral home to offer services at the same low price as we have offered and we continue to offer.

Should anyone knowingly act as agent or party representing any funeral home, name that is operating funeral homes regarding this matter it would be appreciated if you visit it visit it by phone, collect or not, this chapter in (last issue of 31, 1977).

We are prepared at any time have a public company or challenge any private funeral home on grounds of business but it has often been our policy, to sell lower priced services with quality and service than any other funeral home in this province.

What last year's Impala was comparably equipped.

Now more car really does cost less.

Normally, you expect to pay more to get more. So you'd naturally expect Canada's favourite car, Impala, to cost more than a '78 Impala with the same equipment. Well... the price spiral stops right here.

Like an example? Take our Impala Custom Coupe, equipped with a 300-hp Turbo-Fire V8, automatic, hood scooters, Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, hood scooters, whitewalls and wheel covers. And we'll take $119.90* off last year's price.

How come? Because this year we're not the price on the 300-hp motor, the Turbo Hydra-matic transmission and the power doors, and we've made hood scooters standard equipment. So you save a bundle.

And on top of all this, Impala's a better car this year. By now you should be getting the message. More car, less money.

And your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to prove it.

*Based on manufacturer's suggested minimum retail price, including federal and state taxes and suggested dealer delivery and handling charges.

It has come to our attention that certain individuals, namely, are being, circulated in the Lacombe area to the effect that opposition funeral homes are being, funeral services, at lower prices.

We would like the people of the Lacombe area and desires to learn that our funeral prices are lower than any other funeral home in the province offering the same quality and service.

To clarify this matter we would like to point out that funerals that are obtained from our Lacombe Funeral Chapel for as low as $100.00 and up, depends entirely on the type of casket and services selected and desired by any family.

We would like to point out that no family need feel compelled to purchase funeral services and that we challenge any funeral home to offer services at the same low price as we have offered and will continue to offer.

Should anyone know us as being or part representing any opposition funeral home that is spreading misleading rumors regarding this matter it would be appreciated if you could contact us by phone, either at our home or their charges on local 222-3411.

We are prepared at any time to make a public comparison of our charges and private funeral home on pricing of funerals but it has always been our policy, to sell honest priced services with quality and service than any other funeral home in this province.

Will the biplane (a) get the mail through in time?

Will the express train (b) stop before it reaches the missing track?

Will the Indians (c) attack the stage-coach (d)? Or the speeding Hupmobile (e)? And that House on the hill (f)... What's going on up there?

The Pilsener label raises many exciting questions. But there's never any question about Pilsener Beer. It's all made by men who take time to brew and age beer in the traditional way. We're not about to change either: the label or the beer.

Lazy residents... not here!

Budget unimpressive

FRANCE Minister J. E. Brennan's budget, brought down in the House of Commons last week, leaves us unimpressed. We just can't see that a budget which is an increase in government expenditures of one billion dollars can be termed as an intelligent "step-up in the war on inflation."

It shows no sign of overall control on federal government expenditures, the point where most economists say the inflationary spiral begins.

Expenditures for 1966-67 was $107.3 million dollars, the new budget estimates that government expenditures for 1966-67 will be $117.7. This is an increase of just over one billion dollars in one year for Canada's 30,000,000 people, and translates into $39 per year extra for every man, woman and child in Canada.

Mr. Brennan has been lauded for balancing the budget. The way he has balanced this budget, however, is to tack down farm income, cut social services, and increase the deficit.
